AMENDMENTS

1972—Pub. L. 92-607 removed from category of allowed expenses any transportation expenses incurred by employees assigned to a Senator's office within the home State while traveling in the general vicinity of the office, pursuant to change in assignment within the State, and commuting, and, effective Jan. 1, 1973, struck out all provisions for the reimbursement of Senators and employees of Senators for travel expenses to the Senator's home State. See section 58 of this title.

1971—Pub. L. 92-51 rewrote provisions for reimbursement of Senators for transportation expenses, substituting provisions granting a total sum for each fiscal year for each Senator and employees in the Senator's office equal to forty or forty-four times the prescribed mileage allowance dependent on population of the Senator's State being under ten million or ten million and over inhabitants and in accordance with a schedule based on decreasing cents per mile for increasing distances within prescribed limits, describing method of computation when office is occupied for less than entire fiscal year, requiring voucher certification of employees' round trips as in line of official duty, prohibiting travel payments to place of employment of new appointees, and authorizing reimbursement as additional to any other provided for by law for official travel, for former provisions for reimbursement of Senators for each fiscal year for not more than twelve round trips or the equivalent thereof in one-way trips.

1969—Pub. L. 91-145 increased round trip limitation for Senators from six to twelve.

1967—Pub. L. 90-86 provided for reimbursement to members of House, in accordance with the rules of House Committee on House Administration, for those round trips made each year between the Member's district and Washington, D.C., the number of such trips not to exceed the number of months Congress is in session in such year instead of for four round trips each year.

1966—Pub. L. 89-545 authorized equivalent of six round trips in one-way trips for Senators.

1965—Pub. L. 89-147 increased from two to four round trips per year of Members of House of Representatives for which transportation expenses are to be reimbursed.

Pub. L. 89-90 increased round trip limitation for Senators from two to six.

1963—Pub. L. 88-70 authorized reimbursement of Members of House of Representatives for transportation expenses.

1959—Pub. L. 86-176 substituted "between Washington, District of Columbia, and any point in their home States, for not to exceed two round trips" for "from Washington, District of Columbia, to their resident cities in their home States, and return, for not to exceed two such round trips."
